

Company Handbook 2023

Leapstart Inc DBA Leapstart After School

Last Updated on 9/11/2023

Provided by Zenefits

Table of Contents

Table of Contents	2
Acknowledgement of Receipt	4
Welcome.....	5
Introduction	6
Work general policies.....	7
Employee Privacy Policy (CA)	7
Dress Code and Public Image Policy	8
Workspace Policy	9
Office Equipment Policy	9
Personnel Records Policy	9
Performance Reviews, Salary Reviews Policy.....	9
Promotions and Transfers Policy	9
Equal Employment Opportunity Policy (CA).....	10
Employment Classifications Policy	10
Technology	12
Social Media Policy (CA)	12
Telephone Policy	12
Internet Policy	12
Safety and substance abuse	14
Smoking Policy (CA)	14
Drug-Free Workspace Policy	14
Substance Abuse Policy	14
Discrimination, ADA, harassment, etc.....	15
Discrimination Is Prohibited Policy (CA).....	15
Americans With Disabilities Act Policy (CA)	15
Americans with Disabilities Act	15
Workplace Harassment Policy (CA)	16
Procedures for Reporting and Investigating Harassment Policy.....	19
Penalties for Violation of Anti-Harassment Policy	19
Penalties for Violation of Anti-Harassment Policy	19
Working hours.....	20
Hours of Work Policy	20
Flex Time Policy	20
Overtime Hours Policy.....	20
Attendance and Punctuality Policy.....	20
Time off & leave	21
Personal Leave (CA)	21
Sick Leave (CA).....	21
Bereavement Leave Policy (CA).....	22
Religious Observance Policy	22
Employee benefits	23
Dental Plan	23
Life Insurance Plan.....	23
Short-term Disability Plan (CA)	23
Vision Plan	23
Workers' Compensation Insurance.....	23

Retirement Benefits23

Expenses & reimbursement.....25

 Company-Issued Credit Cards Policy25

Payroll26

 Payroll Practices Policy26

 Salary Deductions and Withholding Policy26

 Direct Deposit Policy26

Acknowledgement of Receipt

I acknowledge that I have received a copy of the Leapstart Inc DBA Leapstart After School Employee Handbook (“Handbook”). I understand that I am responsible for reading and abiding by all policies and procedures in this Handbook, as well as all other policies and procedures of the Company.

I also understand that the purpose of this Handbook is to inform me of the Company's policies and procedures, and that it is not a contract of employment. Nothing in this Handbook provides any entitlement to me or to any Company employee, nor is it intended to create contractual obligations of any kind.

I understand that the Company has the right to change any provision of this Handbook at any time and that I will be bound by any such changes.

Signature

Date

Full Name (please print)

Please sign and date one copy of this acknowledgement and return it to the Human Resources. Retain a second copy for your reference.

Welcome

It is our privilege to welcome you to Leapstart Inc DBA Leapstart After School. We wish you every success in your job, and we hope that you feel valued at all times. This Handbook was developed to describe some of the expectations we have for all of our employees and what you can expect from us. We hope that your experience here will be challenging, enjoyable, and rewarding. Again, welcome!

Introduction

This Employee Handbook (“Handbook”) is a compilation of personnel policies, practices and procedures currently in effect at Leapstart Inc DBA Leapstart After School (“Company”). The Handbook is designed to introduce you to our Company, familiarize you with Company policies, provide general guidelines on work rules, benefits and other issues related to your employment, and help answer many of the questions that may arise in connection with your employment.

This Handbook is not a contract of employment, and does not create a contract of employment. Leapstart Inc DBA Leapstart After School generally does not offer individual employees formal employment contracts with the Company. This Handbook does not create a contract, express or implied, guaranteeing you any specific term of employment, nor does it obligate you to continue your employment for a specific period of time. The purpose of the Handbook is simply to provide you with a convenient explanation of present policies and practices at the Company. This Handbook is an overview or a guideline. It cannot cover every matter that might arise in the workplace. For this reason, specific questions regarding the applicability of a particular policy or practice should be addressed to Human Resources.

The Company reserves the right to modify any of our policies and procedures, including those covered in this Handbook, at any time. We will seek to notify you of such changes by email and other appropriate means. However, such a notice is not required for changes to be effective.

Work general policies

Employee Privacy Policy (CA)

In this age of the internet where privacy has become an increasing concern, we take your privacy very seriously. The privacy and security of your personal data (“Personal Information”) that we collect from you is important to us. It is equally important that you understand how we handle this data. The Company will not knowingly collect or use Personal Information in any manner not consistent with this policy, as it may be amended from time to time, and applicable laws.

Collection of Information

In the course of conducting our business and complying with federal, state and local government regulations governing such matters as employment, tax and insurance, we must collect Personal Information from you. The nature of the information collected varies somewhat for each employee, depending on your employment responsibilities, the location of the facility where you work and other factors. We collect Personal Information from you solely for business purposes, including those related directly to your employment with the Company, and those required by governmental agencies.

Use of the Information Collected

The primary purposes for collection, storage and/or use of your Personal Information include, but are not limited to:

- Human Resources Management. We collect, store, analyze and share (internally) Personal Information in order to attract, retain and motivate a highly qualified workforce. This includes recruiting, compensation planning, succession planning, reorganization needs, performance assessment, training, employee benefit administration, compliance with applicable legal requirements and communication with employees and/or their representatives.
- Business Processes and Management. Personal Information is used to run our business operations including, for example, scheduling work assignments, managing Company assets, reporting and/or releasing public data (e.g., annual reports), and populating employee directories. Information may also be used to comply with government regulation.
- Safety and Security Management. We use such Personal Information as appropriate to ensure the safety and protection of employees, assets, resources and communities.
- Communication and Identification. We use your Personal Information to identify you and to communicate with you.

Limited Disclosure

The Company acts to protect your Personal Information and ensure that unauthorized individuals do not have access to such information by using security measures to protect Personal Information. We will not knowingly disclose, sell, or otherwise distribute your Personal Information to any third party without your knowledge and, where appropriate, your express written permission, except where disclosure is reasonably necessary to comply with the law.

Security of Personal Information

We employ and maintain reasonable security measures, procedures, practices and technologies, such as password protection, encryption and physical locks, to protect the confidentiality of your Personal Information and to protect it from unauthorized access, destruction, use, modification or disclosure. Only authorized employees have access to Personal Information. If you are an employee with such authorization, it is imperative that you take the appropriate safeguards to protect such information. Paper and other hard copy containing Personal Information (or any other confidential information) should be secured in a locked location when not in use. Computers and other access points should be secured when not in use by logging out or locking. Passwords and user IDs should be guarded and not shared. When no longer necessary for business purposes, paper and hard copies should be immediately destroyed using paper shredders or similar devices. Do not leave copies in unsecured locations waiting to be shredded or otherwise destroyed. Do not make or distribute unauthorized copies of documents or other tangible medium containing Personal Information. Electronic files containing Personal Information should only be stored on secure computers and not copied or otherwise shared with unauthorized individuals within or outside of the Company.

The Company will make reasonable efforts to secure Personal Information stored or transmitted electronically from hackers or other persons who are not authorized to access such information. The Company will also:

- Dispose of Personal Information;
- Notify individuals of any breach of system security or any other unauthorized acquisition of Personal Information; and
- Take any other necessary action relating to Personal Information.

Any violation or potential violation of this policy should be reported to your immediate supervisor, designated manager or Human Resources. The failure by any employee to follow these privacy policies may result in discipline up to and including discharge of the employee. Any questions or suggestions regarding this policy may also be directed to your immediate supervisor, designated manager or Human Resources.

Dress Code and Public Image Policy

As an employee of the Company, we expect you to present a clean and professional appearance when you represent us, whether you are in or outside of the office. You are, therefore, required to dress in appropriate business attire and to behave in a professional, businesslike manner. It is essential that you act in a professional manner and extend the highest courtesy at all times to co-workers, visitors, customers, vendors and clients.

The current Company dress code is business casual. Please keep in mind that the Company is a professional business office, where clients and others often visit. Generally, clean, neat clothing is acceptable. As always, please use common sense in your choice of business attire.

It is the intent of this policy to comply with applicable state, local and federal laws prohibiting discrimination on the basis of color, race, religion, sex (including pregnancy, sexual orientation and gender identity), national origin, disability, age, genetic information and any other status protected under such laws.

Workspace Policy

Employees are responsible for maintaining the workspace assigned to them. A clean, orderly workspace provides an environment conducive to working efficiently. Employees should keep in mind that their workspace is part of a professional environment that portrays the Company's overall dedication to providing quality service to its clients. Therefore, your workspace should be clean, organized and free of items that are not required to perform your job.

Office Equipment Policy

Certain equipment is assigned to staff depending on the needs of the job, such as a radio sets, microphones, speakers, intercom, laptops, printer, school pickup vehicle, etc. This equipment is the property of the Company and cannot be removed from the office without prior approval from your supervisor. The Company expects that you will treat this equipment with care and report any malfunctions immediately to staff members equipped to diagnose the problem and take corrective action.

Personnel Records Policy

It is important that the Company maintain accurate personnel records at all times. You are responsible for notifying your immediate supervisor or the Human Resources of any change in name, home address, telephone number, immigration status, or any other pertinent information. By promptly notifying the Company of such changes, you will avoid compromise of your benefit eligibility, the return of W-2 forms, or similar inconvenience.

Performance Reviews, Salary Reviews Policy

An employee's first performance review will take place after the first 3 months of employment of employment with the Company. Thereafter, performance reviews will normally be conducted annually in the month of September. All performance reviews will be completed in writing by your supervisor or manager on the form designated by the Company, and reviewed during a conference with you. Factors considered in your review include the quality of your job performance, your attendance, meeting the requirements of your job description, dependability, attitude, cooperation, compliance with Company employment policies, any disciplinary actions, and year-to-year improvement in overall performance. Compensation increases are given by the Company at its discretion in consideration of various factors, including your performance review and certain other factors that drive company's growth and sustainability like re-enrollments, positive reviews by customers on Google and Yelp, summer camp enrollments, High LTV (life time value) of customers under your care, High NPS (Net Promoter Score) of enrollments by referrals of customers under your care, quality of service by vendors and employees reporting to you.

Promotions and Transfers Policy

In an effort to match you with the job for which you are most suited and/or to meet the business and operational needs of the Company, you may be transferred from your current job to another role or another site. This may be either at your request or as a result of a decision by the Company.

Reasons for transfer may include, but are not necessarily limited to, fluctuations in department workloads or production flow, a desire for more efficient utilization of personnel, increased career opportunities, personality conflicts, health, other personal situations or other business reasons. Temporary transfers may be made at the discretion of the Company management.

Most job openings that are intended to be filled from within the Company will be posted <https://leapstartafterschool.com/jobs/>. The management of the Company does reserve the right, however, to transfer or promote an employee without posting the availability of that position.

An employee is eligible to request a transfer and to be considered for a promotion upon completion of 12 months of satisfactory job performance. (However, a transfer may take place within the first six (6) months of employment if the management of the Company believes that it is in the best interest of the Company to make an exception to this guideline.) Your eligibility is also dependent, of course, on your having the needed skills, education, experience and other qualifications that are required for the job.

Equal Employment Opportunity Policy (CA)

The Company is an equal opportunity employer. We will extend equal opportunity to all individuals without regard to race, religion, creed, color, national origin, ancestry, disability, genetic information, marital status, gender, gender identity, gender expression, age, sexual orientation, military status, veteran status or any other status protected under applicable federal, state or local laws. Our policy reflects and affirms the Company's commitment to the principles of fair employment and the elimination of all discriminatory practices. Details of our equal employment opportunity policies are further explained in Anti-Discrimination & Harassment.

Employment Classifications Policy

The following terms will be used to describe employment classifications and status:

Exempt Employees

Exempt employees are individuals not subject to overtime pay laws. In general, overtime laws require that exempt employees:

- Receive a pre-determined weekly salary that is not subject to change based on the employee's work quality or quantity;
- Receive a salary that is at least equal to the salary level set by law; and
- Meet the requirements of an exempt job classification.
- Typically work in Administrative, Executive, Professional job roles

Non-Exempt Employees

Salaried employees who do not meet all criteria for an overtime exemption and many hourly employees are generally not exempt from overtime pay requirements.

Full-Time Employees

Full-time employees are those who are regularly scheduled to work at least 30 hours per week that are not hired on a temporary basis.

Temporary Employees

Temporary employees are hired for an interim period of time, usually to fill in for vacations, leaves of absence, or projects of a limited duration. Temporary employees are not eligible for Company-paid benefits, except as required by law.

Seasonal Employees

Seasonal employees are those hired into a position for which the customary annual employment is 6 months or less. Seasonal employees are generally not eligible for benefits.

If your status changes from temporary or seasonal to part-time or full-time, you are considered hired on the date you become a full-time or part-time employee for purposes of calculating eligibility for benefits that require a minimum term of employment.

Technology

Social Media Policy (CA)

Employees will not be asked or required to:

- Disclose a username or password for the purpose of accessing personal social media;
- Access personal social media in the presence of the employer; or
- Divulge any personal social media, except in limited circumstances.

However, the Company may request that an employee divulge personal social media reasonably believed to be relevant to an investigation or allegations of employee misconduct, or employee violation of laws. In addition, any conduct that adversely affects an employee's job performance or the performance of fellow employees, or otherwise adversely affects the Company's legitimate business interests, may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination. Similarly, inappropriate postings, including but not limited to discriminatory remarks, harassment, and threats of violence, or similar inappropriate or unlawful conduct, will not be tolerated and may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination.

The term "social media" is defined as an electronic service or account, or electronic content, including, but not limited to, videos, still photographs, blogs, video blogs, podcasts, instant and text messages, email, online services or accounts, or internet website profiles or locations.

Telephone Policy

Access to the Company telephone system is given principally for work-related activities or approved educational/training activities. Incidental and occasional personal use is permitted. This privilege should not be abused and must not affect the employee's performance of employment-related activities. Telephone usage should be based upon cost-effective practices that support the Company's mission and should comply with applicable rules and regulations.

You should use common sense and your best judgment when making or receiving personal cellular phone calls at work. To the extent possible, employees should make personal cellphone calls during their breaks or lunch times. The use of cameras on cell phones during work hours is prohibited to protect the privacy of the Company as well as of fellow employees.

The Company telephone system is at all times the property of the Company. By accessing the telephone system through facilities provided by the Company, you acknowledge that the Company has the right to monitor its telephone system from time to time to ensure that employees are using the system for its intended purposes.

The Company prohibits the use of handheld cellular devices while driving. Employees are required to use a hands-free cellular device while driving, should the use become a necessity in the course of employment. Company can provide such equipment at no cost if requested. Sending and/or receiving text messages is expressly prohibited while operating any vehicle.

Internet Policy

Access to the internet is given principally for work-related activities or approved educational/training activities. Incidental and occasional personal use and study use is permitted. This privilege should not be abused and must not affect the employee's performance of employment-related activities.

Right to Monitor

The Company email and internet system, where provided, is at all times the property of the Company. By accessing the internet, intranet and electronic mail services through facilities provided by the Company, you acknowledge that the Company (by itself or through its Internet Service Provider) may from time to time monitor, log and gather statistics on employee internet activity at their premises and may examine all individual connections and communications.

Responsibilities and Obligations

Employees may not access, download or distribute material that is illegal, or which others may find offensive or objectionable, such as material that is pornographic, discriminatory, harassing, or an incitement to violence.

You must respect and comply with copyright, trademark and similar laws, and use such protected information in compliance with applicable legal standards. When using web-based sources, you must provide appropriate attribution and citation of information to the websites. Software must not be downloaded from the internet without the prior approval of qualified persons within the Company.

Violation of this Policy

In all circumstances, use of internet access and email systems must be consistent with the law and Company policies. Violation of this policy is a serious offense and, subject to the requirements of the law, may result in a range of sanctions, from restriction of access to electronic communication facilities to disciplinary action, up to and including termination.

Safety and substance abuse

Smoking Policy (CA)

In order to provide a safe and comfortable working environment for all employees, smoking and the use of electronic cigarettes are strictly prohibited at all times inside any Company building or vehicle.

Drug-Free Workspace Policy

The Company takes the problem of drug and alcohol abuse seriously, and is committed to providing a substance abuse-free workplace for its employees. Substance abuse of any kind is inconsistent with the behavior expected of our employees, subjects all employees and visitors to our facilities to unacceptable safety risks, and undermines our ability to operate effectively and efficiently. The Company has adopted a formal policy related to substance abuse. A copy of the complete policy is contained in this Handbook.

Substance Abuse Policy

The Company recognizes alcohol and drug abuse as potential health, safety and security problems. The Company expects all employees to assist in maintaining a work environment free from the effects of alcohol, drugs or other intoxicating substances. Compliance with this substance abuse policy is made a condition of employment, and violations of the policy may lead to discipline and/or discharge.

All employees are prohibited from engaging in the unlawful manufacture, possession, use, distribution or purchase of illicit drugs, alcohol or other intoxicants, as well as the misuse of prescription drugs on Company premises or at any time and any place during working hours. While we cannot control your behavior off the premises on your own time, we certainly encourage you to behave responsibly and appropriately at all times. All employees are required to report to their jobs in appropriate mental and physical condition, ready to work.

Substance abuse is an illness that can be treated. Employees who have an alcohol or drug abuse problem are encouraged to seek appropriate professional assistance. You may ask your immediate supervisor, designated manager or Human Resources for assistance in seeking help to address substance abuse. He or she can also help you determine coverage available under the Company's medical insurance plan.

When work performance is impaired, admission to or use of a treatment or other program does not preclude appropriate action by the Company.

Any violator of this substance abuse policy will be subject to disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment.

Discrimination, ADA, harassment, etc.

Discrimination Is Prohibited Policy (CA)

The Company is an equal opportunity employer and makes all employment decisions without regard to race (including traits that are historically associated with race, such as hair texture and protective hairstyles, including braids, locks and twists), religion, creed, color, national origin, ancestry, disability, medical condition, genetic information, marital status, sex (including pregnancy, childbirth, breastfeeding, and related medical conditions), gender, gender identity, gender expression, age, sexual orientation, military status, veteran status or any other status protected under applicable federal, state or local laws. This policy applies to all terms and conditions of employment, including but not limited to, hiring, placement, promotion, termination, layoff, recall, transfer, leaves of absence, benefits, compensation and training. We seek to comply with all applicable federal, state and local laws related to discrimination and will not tolerate the interference with the ability of any of the Company's employees to perform their job duties.

The Company makes decisions concerning employment based strictly on an individual's qualifications and ability to perform the job under consideration, the comparative qualifications and abilities of other applicants or employees, and the individual's past performance within the organization.

If you believe that an employment decision has been made that does not conform with management's commitment to equal opportunity, you should promptly bring the matter to the attention of your immediate supervisor, designated manager, or Human Resources. Your complaint will be promptly, thoroughly and impartially investigated. There will be no retaliation against any employee who files a complaint in good faith, even if the result of the investigation produces insufficient evidence to support the complaint.

Americans With Disabilities Act Policy (CA)

Americans with Disabilities Act

The federal Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and California law prohibit discrimination against qualified individuals with disabilities in job application procedures, hiring, firing, advancement, compensation, fringe benefits, job training and other terms, conditions and privileges of employment. The laws do not alter the Company's right to hire the best-qualified applicant, but they do prohibit discrimination against a qualified applicant or employee because of his or her disability, or because of a perceived disability. As a matter of Company policy, the Company prohibits discrimination, harassment and retaliation of any kind against people with disabilities, and follows all applicable laws.

Disabled Defined

An applicant or employee is considered disabled if he or she (1) has a physical or mental impairment, disorder, or condition that substantially limits one or more major life activities; (2) has a record or past history of such an impairment, disorder or condition; or (3) is regarded or perceived (correctly or incorrectly) as having such impairment, disorder or condition.

A qualified employee or applicant with a disability is an individual who satisfies the requisite skill, experience, education and other job-related requirements of the position held or desired, and who, with or without reasonable accommodation, can perform the essential functions of that position.

Reasonable Accommodation

A reasonable accommodation is any change in the work environment (or in the way things are usually done) to help a person with a disability apply for a job, perform the duties of a job, or enjoy the benefits and privileges of employment.

Qualified applicants or employees who are disabled should request reasonable accommodation from the Company in order to allow them to perform a particular job. If you are disabled and you desire such reasonable accommodation, contact your immediate supervisor, designated manager or Human Resources. On receipt of your request, we will meet with you to discuss your disability. We may ask for information from your health care provider(s) regarding the nature of your disability and the nature of your limitations, or take other steps necessary to help us determine viable options for reasonable accommodation. We will then work with you to determine whether your disability can be reasonably accommodated, and if it can be accommodated, we will explore alternatives with you and endeavor to implement a mutually agreeable accommodation.

Reasonable accommodation may take many forms and it will vary from one employee to another. Please note that according to the ADA and California law, the Company does not have to provide the exact accommodation you want, and if more than one accommodation works, we may choose which one to provide. Furthermore, the Company does not have to provide an accommodation if doing so would cause undue hardship to the Company.

Workplace Harassment Policy (CA)

The Company is committed to providing a professional work environment free from discrimination and harassment, including discrimination and harassment based on a protected category, and an environment free from retaliation for participating in any protected activity covered by this policy. The Company is committed to providing equal employment opportunities to all employees and applicants for employment. Accordingly, we have adopted and maintain this anti-discrimination policy designed to encourage professional and respectful behavior and prevent discriminatory and harassing conduct in our workplace. We will implement appropriate corrective action(s), up to and including formal discipline, in response to misconduct--including violations of the Company's anti-discrimination policy--even if the violation does not rise to the level of unlawful conduct.

The Company prohibits discrimination or harassment based on the following categories: race, color, religion, religious creed (including religious dress and grooming practices), national origin, ancestry, citizenship, physical or mental disability*, medical condition (including cancer and genetic characteristics), genetic information, marital status, sex (including pregnancy, childbirth, breastfeeding or related medical conditions), gender, gender identity, gender expression, age (40 years and over), sexual orientation, veteran and/or military status, protected medical leaves (requesting or approved for leave under the federal Family and Medical Leave Act or the California Family Rights Act, domestic violence victim status, political affiliation and any other status protected by state or federal law. In addition, the Company prohibits retaliation against a person who engages in activities protected under this policy. Reporting, or assisting in reporting, suspected violations of this policy and cooperating in investigations or proceedings arising out of a violation of this policy are protected activities under this policy.

All employees are expected to assume responsibility for maintaining a work environment that is free from discrimination, harassment, and retaliation. Employees are encouraged to promptly report conduct that they believe violates this policy so that the Company has an opportunity to address and resolve any concerns. Managers and supervisors are required to promptly report conduct that they believe violates this policy. The Company is committed to responding to alleged violations of this policy in a timely and fair manner and to taking appropriate action aimed at ending the prohibited conduct.

Scope of Protection

This policy applies applicants and employees (co-workers, supervisors, and managers). As used in this policy, the term "employee" includes contractors and volunteers in our workplace. In addition, this policy extends to conduct with a connection to an employee's work, even when the conduct takes place away from the Company's premises, such as a business trip or business-related social function.

Applicant/Employee Rights

- The right to a discrimination, harassment and retaliation-free work environment.
- The right to file a complaint of discrimination, harassment or retaliation. Employees are encouraged to report inappropriate conduct immediately and, whenever possible, to put the complaint or concern in writing.
- The right to a full, impartial, and prompt investigation by a representative or designee of the Company into the allegations of conduct that would violate this policy.
- The right to be timely informed of appropriate information related to the outcome of an investigation either as a complainant or a respondent in the investigation.
- The right to be represented by a person of the complainant's choosing at each and all steps of the complaint process.
- The right to be free from retaliation or reprisal after filing a complaint or participating in the complaint process.
- The right to file a complaint directly with the California Department of Fair Employment and Housing, the federal Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, or other appropriate state or federal agencies, or to file a civil action in the appropriate court.

Conduct Prohibited By This Policy/Definitions

Discrimination: As used in this policy, discrimination is defined as the unequal treatment of an employee or applicant in any aspect of employment, including discrimination based solely or in part on the employee's, or applicant's, protected category. Protected categories include: race, color, religion, religious creed (including religious dress and grooming practices), national origin, ancestry, citizenship, physical or mental disability, medical condition (including cancer and genetic characteristics), genetic information, marital status, sex (including pregnancy, childbirth, breastfeeding or related medical conditions), gender, gender identity, gender expression, age (40 years and over), sexual orientation, veteran and/or military status, protected medical leaves (requesting or approved for leave under the federal Family and Medical Leave Act or the California Family Rights Act, domestic violence victim status, political affiliation and any other status protected by state or federal law. Discrimination includes unequal treatment based upon the employee or applicant's association with a member of these protected classes.

Discrimination may include, but is not necessarily limited to: hostile or demeaning behavior towards applicants or employees because of their protected category; allowing the applicant's or employee's protected category to be a factor in hiring, promotion, compensation, or other employment-related decisions unless otherwise permitted by applicable law; and providing unwarranted assistance or withholding work-related assistance, cooperation, and/or information to applicants or employees because of their protected category.

Harassment: As used in this policy, harassment is defined as disrespectful or unprofessional conduct, including disrespectful or unprofessional conduct based on any of the protected categories listed above. Harassment can be verbal (such as slurs, jokes, insults, epithets, gestures or teasing), visual (such as the posting or distribution of offensive posters, symbols, cartoons, drawings, computer displays, or emails), or physical conduct (such as physically threatening another person, blocking someone's way, making physical conduct in an unwelcome manner, etc.).

Sexual Harassment: As used in this policy, sexual harassment is defined as harassment based on sex or conduct of a sexual nature, and includes harassment based on sex (including pregnancy, childbirth, breastfeeding, or related medical conditions), gender, gender identity, or gender expression. It may include all of the actions described above as harassment, as well as other unwelcome sex-based conduct, such as unwelcome or unsolicited sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, conversations regarding sexual activities, or other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature. Sexually harassing conduct need not be motivated by sexual desire and may include situations that began as reciprocal relationships, but that later cease to be reciprocal.

Sexual harassment is generally categorized into two types:

1. Quid Pro Quo Sexual Harassment ("this for that")
 - Submission to sexual conduct is made explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual's employment.
 - Submission to or rejection of the conduct by an employee is used as the basis for employment decisions affecting the employee.
2. Hostile Work Environment Sexual Harassment: Conduct of a sexual nature or on the basis of sex by any person in the workplace that unreasonably interferes with an employee's work performance and/or creates an intimidating, hostile or otherwise offensive working environment. Examples include:
 - Unwelcome sexual advances, flirtation, teasing, sexually suggestive or obscene letters, invitations, notes, emails, voicemails or gifts.
 - Sex, gender or sexual orientation-related comments, slurs, jokes, remarks or epithets.
 - Leering, obscene or vulgar gestures, or making sexual gestures.
 - Displaying or distributing sexually suggestive or derogatory objects, pictures, cartoons or posters or any such items.
 - Impeding or blocking movement, unwelcome touching or assaulting others.
 - Any sexual advances that are unwelcome, as well as reprisals or threats after a negative response to sexual advances.
 - Conduct or comments consistently targeted at one gender, even if the content is not sexual.

Retaliation: As used in this policy, retaliation is defined as any adverse employment action taken against an employee because the employee engaged in activity protected under this policy. Protected activities may include, but are not limited to, reporting or assisting in reporting suspected violations of this policy and/or cooperating in investigations or proceedings arising out of a violation of this policy.

Adverse employment action is conduct or an action that materially affects the terms and conditions of the employee's employment status or is reasonably likely to deter the employee from engaging in protected activity. Even actions that do not result in a direct loss of compensation may be regarded as an adverse employment action when considered in the totality of the circumstances.

Examples of retaliation under this policy include but are not limited to: demotion; suspension; reduction in pay; denial of a merit salary increase; failure to hire or consider for hire; refusing to promote or consider for promotion because of reporting a violation of this policy; harassing another employee for filing a complaint; denying employment opportunities because of making a complaint or for cooperating in an investigation; changing someone's work assignments for identifying harassment or other forms of discrimination in the workplace; treating people differently such as denying an accommodation; or not talking to an employee when otherwise required by job duties, or otherwise excluding the employee from job-related activities because of engagement in activities protected under this policy.

* The Company recognizes and supports the obligation to reasonably accommodate employees with disabilities or religious beliefs or practices in order to allow those employees to perform the essential functions of their jobs. If an employee believes they need a reasonable accommodation based on disability or religious belief or practice, the employee should discuss the matter with their supervisor or the Human Resources.

Procedures for Reporting and Investigating Harassment Policy

Employees should report incidents of inappropriate behavior or sexual harassment as soon as possible after the occurrence. Employees who believe they have been harassed, regardless of whether the offensive act was committed by a manager, co-worker, vendor, visitor or client, should promptly notify their immediate supervisor, designated manager or Human Resources. If the employee's immediate supervisor is involved in the incident, the employee should report the incident to the Rohit Arora. The Company takes claims of harassment seriously, no matter how trivial a claim may appear. All complaints of harassment, sexual harassment, or other inappropriate sexual conduct will be promptly, thoroughly and impartially investigated by the Company.

The Company prohibits retaliation against any employee who files or pursues a harassment claim. To the extent possible, all complaints and related information will remain confidential, except to those individuals who need the information to investigate, educate or take action in response to the complaint.

All employees are expected to cooperate fully with any ongoing investigation regarding a harassment incident. Employees who believe they have been unjustly charged with harassment can defend themselves verbally or in writing at any stage of the investigation.

To protect the privacy of persons involved, confidentiality will be maintained throughout the investigatory process to the extent practicable and appropriate under the circumstances. Investigations may include interviews with the parties involved, and, where necessary, individuals who may have observed the alleged conduct or who may have relevant knowledge.

At the conclusion of a harassment investigation, the complainant and the alleged "harasser" will be informed of the determination. Where appropriate, the "harasser" and the "victim" may be offered mediation or counseling through an employee assistance program (EAP).

Penalties for Violation of Anti-Harassment Policy

If it is determined that inappropriate conduct has occurred, the Company will act promptly to eliminate the offending conduct, and take such action as is appropriate under the circumstances. Such action may range from counseling to termination of employment, and may include such other forms of disciplinary action (such as, for example, suspension), as the Company deems appropriate under the circumstances and in accordance with applicable law.

Penalties for Violation of Anti-Harassment Policy

If it is determined that inappropriate conduct has occurred, the Company will act promptly to eliminate the offending conduct, and take such action as is appropriate under the circumstances. Such action may range from counseling to termination of employment, and may include such other forms of disciplinary action (such as, for example, suspension), as the Company deems appropriate under the circumstances and in accordance with applicable law.

Working hours

Hours of Work Policy

The workweek is generally from 1:30PM through 6:30PM, with normal operating hours from Monday to Friday. All Employees are required to take an unpaid meal break of 30 minutes where they do more than 5 hours on any given day due to longer work days required to accommodate Early School Dismissals, Staff Learning Days, School Breaks, or Summer Camps.

Flex Time Policy

The Company recognizes that many employees need flexibility in work schedules in order to meet their personal needs, however Company Core hours are 2PM to 5:30PM and all employees should be at work during those hours except during Summer Camps when Core hours change to 9AM - 2PM.

Overtime Hours Policy

Because of the nature of our business, your job may periodically require overtime work. If the Company requires that you work overtime, we will inform you as such. You should not work overtime hours without prior approval by your immediate supervisor or the designated manager. Any hours above Eight (8) hours of total work on a workday are counted as Overtime hours.

Attendance and Punctuality Policy

It is important for you to report to work on time and to avoid unnecessary absences. The Company recognizes that illness or other circumstances beyond your control may cause you to be absent from work from time to time. However, frequent absenteeism or tardiness may result in disciplinary action, up to and including discharge. Excessive absenteeism or frequent tardiness puts an unnecessary strain on your co-workers and can have a negative impact on the success of the Company.

You are expected to report to work when scheduled. Whenever you know in advance that you are going to be absent, you should notify your immediate supervisor or the designated manager. If your absence is unexpected, you should attempt to reach your immediate supervisor as soon as possible, but in no event later than one hour before you are due at work. In the event your immediate supervisor is unavailable, you must speak with a manager or coworker. If you must leave a voicemail, you must provide a number where your supervisor may reach you if need be.

Please note that some, but not all, absences are compensated under the Company's leave policies.

You are expected to be at work at the start time assigned to you on each business day. If you are delayed, you must call your immediate supervisor to state the reason for the delay. As with absences, you must make every effort to speak directly with a manager. Regular delays in reporting to work will result in disciplinary action up to and including discharge.

Time off & leave

Personal Leave (CA)

Personal leave may be used for personal business that cannot be tended to during work hours. You are not required to give any specific reason for using your personal leave. However, when you do take personal leave, you should give your immediate supervisor as much advance notice as possible. The company has defined certain blackout days in the system provided to you to request personal time off when you can not take paid personal time off.

Full-time employees earn personal leave as follows:

You earn 1 hour for every 50 hours worked. If Someone works 2000 hours in an year, that person will earn 40 hours of Personal Time Off.

Part-time employees earn personal leave as follows:

You earn 1 hour for every 50 hours worked. If Someone works 2000 hours in an year, that person will earn 40 hours of Personal Time Off.

Accrual and Use

Employees begin to accrue personal leave when they begin work for the Leapstart Inc DBA Leapstart After School. Employees may use their personal leave at any time after the first 1st Day of Employment of employment. Employees may carry over accrued personal leave from one year to the next.

Procedure

When you are absent from work and your absence has not been previously scheduled, you must personally notify your immediate supervisor or manager as soon as you are aware that you will be late or unable to report to work. Leaving a voicemail or message with another staff member does not qualify as notifying your supervisor.

Sick Leave (CA)

Paid sick leave may be used for:

- The diagnosis, care or treatment of an existing health condition of, or preventive care for, you or your family member;
- The recovery from a physical or mental illness or injury.

To be eligible for paid sick leave, you must work for the Company for at least 30 days within a year in California and complete a 90-day employment period. You will begin accruing sick leave on your date of hire, at the rate of one hour per every 50 hours worked. You may use your sick leave at any time beginning on the 90th day of employment, after which day you may use sick leave as it is accrued.

You may carry over accrued sick leave from one year to the next, up to a cap of 40 hours. Once the cap is reached, an employee will not be able to accumulate any more sick leave until some of the sick leave is used and drops below the cap. After sick leave goes below the cap, employees can begin accruing sick leave again. However, your use of paid sick leave is limited to 24 hours or three days in any single request and use.

Notification Procedures

If the need for sick leave is foreseeable, please attempt to provide reasonable advance notification. If the need for sick leave is unforeseeable, please attempt to provide notice as soon as practicable.

Please contact the Company with questions on this policy. Please note that excessive absenteeism or tardiness may result in discipline, up to and including discharge.

Bereavement Leave Policy (CA)

Beginning Jan. 1, 2023, you may qualify for up to five days of unpaid time off in the event of the death of a member of your family. Please note that this bereavement leave benefit depends on how long you have worked for the Company and on employer size, so please check in with Human Resources to learn about the availability of this leave.

If you are eligible for bereavement leave, you must take the leave within three months of the date of your family member's death. However, you are not required to take all bereavement leave days consecutively.

You may use other leave balances available to you, including accrued paid sick leave, during your bereavement leave.

Under state law, the Company may require that you provide documentation of the family member's death within 30 days of the first day of leave. Acceptable documentation includes but is not limited to a death certificate; published obituary; or written verification of death, burial or memorial services from a mortuary, funeral home, burial society, crematorium, religious institution or governmental agency. The Company will maintain the confidentiality of your request for bereavement leave, and of any documentation you provide.

Religious Observance Policy

Federal and state equal opportunity laws generally require employers to accommodate the religious beliefs of employees, but do not require them to provide paid leave. The Company respects your religious beliefs, however, and therefore, will provide one (1) day of unpaid leave to employees who, for religious reasons, must be away from the office on days of normal operation. This leave must be requested through the department manager two weeks prior to the event.

Employee benefits

Dental Plan

The Company offers a dental plan for eligible employees. Please refer to the dental Summary Plan Description for an explanation of the plan benefits and limitations in your HR Portal under Documents.

Life Insurance Plan

Eligible employees are offered a term life insurance program. Enrollees may designate or change the beneficiary for this policy at any time. The Company pays the premium for this program. The face value of this benefit is equal to $25,000. For details, please go to your HR Portal under Documents.

Short-term Disability Plan (CA)

A short-term disability plan is provided for eligible employees in accordance with the California State Disability Insurance (SDI) program, which is a partial wage-replacement insurance plan for California workers. Workers covered by SDI are covered by two programs:

- The Disability Insurance Program, which provides short-term benefits to eligible workers who suffer a loss of wages when they are unable to work due to a non-work-related illness or injury, or due to pregnancy or childbirth.
- The Paid Family Leave Program, which provides benefits for workers who suffer a loss of wages when they need to take time off from work to care for a seriously ill child, spouse, parent, parent-in-law, grandparent, grandchild, sibling or registered domestic partner, or to bond with a new child.

Vision Plan

The Company offers a vision plan for eligible employees. Please refer to the vision Summary Plan Description for an explanation of the plan benefits and limitations in your HR Portal under Documents.

Workers' Compensation Insurance

To provide for payment of your medical expenses and for partial salary continuation in the event of a work-related accident or illness, you are covered by workers' compensation insurance, provided by the Company and based on state regulations. The amount of benefits payable, as well as the duration of payments, depends upon the nature of your injury or illness. However, all medical expenses incurred in connection with an on-the-job injury or illness and partial salary payments are paid in accordance with applicable state law. If you are injured or become ill on the job, you must immediately report the injury or illness to Human Resources. This ensures that the Company can help you obtain appropriate medical treatment. Your failure to follow this procedure may delay your benefits or may even jeopardize your receipt of benefits. Questions regarding workers' compensation insurance should be directed to Human Resources.

Retirement Benefits

The Company offers the following additional benefits: Simple IRA. This is a retirement plan that you can enroll in during open enrollment period. Please refer to the Benefit Booklet and/or Summary Plan Description for additional details in your HR Portal under Documents.

Expenses & reimbursement

Company-Issued Credit Cards Policy

The Company may issue company credit cards to certain employees for business use as necessary in connection with the employee's job duties. Use of company-issued credit cards is a privilege, which the Company may withdraw at any time.

Any credit card issued to an employee by the Company must be used for business purposes only. Personal purchases of any type are not allowed and will not be reimbursed.

Employees are expected to exercise discretion and good judgment when incurring business expenses and to report expenses on a timely basis with appropriate documentation. If there is any question as to whether a particular purchase qualifies as a business expense, the employee should consult his or her manager before incurring the expense. Employees are responsible for any unauthorized purchases deemed by the Company to be for personal use.

Payroll

Payroll Practices Policy

Employees are paid monthly. Employees will be paid by the 7th day of the month or earlier for the previous month.

Salary Deductions and Withholding Policy

The Company will withhold the following from your paycheck:

Taxes

Federal, state and local taxes, as required by law, as well as the required FICA (Social Security and Medicare) payments.

Insurance

Your contribution to health insurance or other insurance premiums for yourself and any eligible family members or to other contributory benefit programs.

Other Deductions

Other deductions which you authorize, including Simple IRA Contributions.

Direct Deposit Policy

You may have your paycheck deposited directly into your bank account. You will be given the authorization form for deposit by your immediate supervisor, designated manager or Human Resources.